

University of St. Francis Computer Loan Agreement

A University laptop is being loaned to you for academic purposes. It is your responsibility to care for the equipment and ensure it is maintained in a safe environment.

The University of St. Francis agrees to support your use of this equipment and is available to answer questions through this link http://techsupport.stfrancis.edu/Rept_Prob_Form

The laptop computer, computer charger brick, charger cord and other equipment included with the laptop are the property of the University of St. Francis and is herewith being loaned to the borrower for educational purposes. Borrowers may not deface or destroy this property in any way. Inappropriate material on the machine may result in the borrower losing their right to use this computer. The equipment will be returned to the school on a date to be requested. Borrowers who do not return the computer and related materials when requested will be charged the cost of the equipment to their student account. If the laptop equipment is lost, stolen or damaged while in the borrower's possession, borrower is responsible for the cost of the replacement or repair thereof.

Any included software may be used only in accordance with the applicable license and it is the borrower's responsibility to be familiar with and to comply with the provisions of such license. The borrower must follow the Technology Use Policy found in the Student Code of Conduct https://myusf.stfrancis.edu/portal/secure/content/STUDENT_HANDBOOK

The University is not responsible for any computer or electronic viruses that may be transferred to or from borrower's diskettes or other data storage medium and borrower agrees to use borrower's best efforts to assure the University's Property is not damaged or rendered inoperable by any such electronic virus while in borrower's possession.

By accepting this laptop, the borrower acknowledges and agrees to the terms of use as spelled out in this Computer Loan Agreement. Additionally, they agree that borrower's use of the University's Property is a privilege, and that by borrower's agreement to the terms hereof, borrower acknowledges borrower's responsibility to protect and safeguard the University's Property and to return the same in good condition.