

UNIVERSITY OF ST. FRANCIS LOANER LAPTOP AGREEMENT

The laptop computer, computer charger brick, charger cord, and other equipment included with the laptop (“Device”) are the property of the University of St. Francis and are herewith being loaned to the borrower for educational purposes. Borrowers may not deface or destroy the Device in any way. Inappropriate material on the Device may result in the borrower losing their right to use the Device.

The Device is to be returned to the university at the end of each semester. Borrowers who do not return the Device when requested will have the cost of the Device charged to their student account. If the Device is lost, stolen, or damaged while in the borrower’s possession, the borrower is responsible for the cost of the replacement or repair thereof.

Any included software may be used only in accordance with the applicable license and it is the borrower’s responsibility to be familiar with and to comply with the provisions of such license. The borrower must follow the Technology Use Policy found in the Student Code of Conduct <https://myusf.stfrancis.edu/portel/secure/content/STUDENTHANDBOOK>.

The University is not responsible for any computer or electronic viruses that may be transferred to or from borrower’s external storage medium and borrower agrees to use borrower’s best efforts to insure the University property is not damaged or rendered inoperable by such electronic virus while in the borrower’s possession.

By accepting this Device, the borrower acknowledges and agrees to the terms of use as spelled out in this agreement. Additionally, they agree that borrower’s use of the University property is a privilege, and that by borrower’s agreement to the terms hereof, borrower acknowledges borrower’s responsibility to protect and safeguard the University’s property and to return the same in good condition.
